Mission

The mission of the Scottsdale Philharmonic is to provide the city of Scottsdale and surrounding communities with a professional symphony orchestra, performing a series of traditional classical music concerts without charge to the public and making classical music available to audiences of all ages.

Ajay R. Patel
Conductor, Scottsdale Philharmonic

Ajay R. Patel has been a music educator in Arizona since 2001, beginning as the director of orchestras at Mountain Pointe High School before moving on to Basha High School. From 2016 to the present, he has served as the orchestra director at Desert Ridge High School. Patel earned a bachelor of music education and a master of music in cello performance, both from Arizona State University.

Patel is an active member of organizations that support Arizona music education. He has served in positions for the Arizona Band and Orchestra Directors Association as Southwest Region orchestra chair and Southwest Region governor. He is also a current member of the National Association for Music Education and the American String Teachers Association. Patel has served as the symphony orchestra conductor for the East Valley Youth Symphony since its inaugural year in 2006. He also established, in 2009, the Chandler Academy for the Performing Arts, a three-week summer music program for orchestra, band, choir, and theatre, serving the students of Chandler Unified School District and the southeast Valley community.

An accomplished cellist, Patel has performed with many of the community and professional orchestras in Arizona. He has served as a substitute section cellist for the Arizona Opera, guest principal cellist for the Chandler Symphony Orchestra, and the assistant principal cellist of the Arizona Pro Arte Orchestra. He has also performed with the Symphony of the Southwest, MusicaNova Orchestra, and the Scottsdale Philharmonic. In the winter of 2011, Patel was the principal cellist of the American Festival Orchestra, under the direction of Lawrence Golan. The American Festival Orchestra toured 14 cities in China over a span of two weeks as part of an international cultural exchange.

Patel studied cello with Takayori Atsumi and Thomas Landschoot at ASU. His conducting studies were guided by Dr. Timothy Russell and Dr. Gary Hill at ASU.

Vision

Our vision is to enhance the cultural environment of Scottsdale with an orchestra of professional musicians where everyone can attend classical symphony concerts. Founded in 2012, the Scottsdale Philharmonic is a nonprofit corporation that is funded by contributions from the general public and business community.

John Massaro
Resident Conductor

John Massaro is the principal conductor for Phoenix Opera and the Southwest Vocal Competition, where he has conducted main stage opera productions and galas with world-renowned opera superstars Dmitri Hvorostovsky and Jonas Kaufmann. Massaro served as an assistant to Leonard Bernstein during the creation of his opera A Quiet Place and to Zubin Mehta for the Israel Philharmonic's production of Madama Butterfly. He worked extensively with the great German soprano Elisabeth Schwarzkopf, with whom he coached both opera and art song repertoire. Massaro made his Carnegie Hall debut conducting the Mozart Requiem, which led to a distinguished European tour to Budapest, Krakow, Prague, Salzburg, and Vienna, where he conducted several additional Mozart masterpieces in a 250th anniversary celebration of the composer's birth. He debuted with the Phoenix Symphony in 2002, conducting a 9/11 memorial concert, which included his own arrangement of the National Anthem.

Scottsdale Philharmonic is pleased to acknowledge the following patrons who have made generous gifts of $50 or more. These donations help to make classical music available to audiences of all ages.

CITY OF SCOTTSDALE – OFFICE OF THE MAYOR

Welcome to the Scottsdale Philharmonic's 2021 season!

I am delighted to celebrate another year with these wonderful musicians and this fine organization.

This not for profit corporation is dedicated to presenting free concerts to the community with the dedicated support of ninety professional musicians who volunteer their time and talent under the leadership of originators Joy Partridge and Carl Reiter.

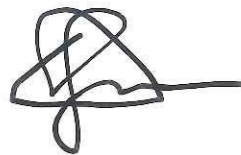

The Scottsdale Philharmonic is funded by friends and patrons of the orchestra, grants and corporate donations. They appreciate your financial support so they can continue to present these wonderful shows at no charge to our community.

Scottsdale Philharmonic is a community treasure. Since their inception they've strengthened bonds within the arts community while becoming an important contributor Scottsdale's renowned art culture. I thank them for their collaborative and creative efforts and I look forward to these sensational concerts for many years to come.

Thank you for joining us today and enjoy the concert!

Sincerely,

David D. Ortega
Mayor of Scottsdale

Scottsdale Arts is sincerely grateful for donors, members, and partners who celebrate and support art in our community at every level. We gratefully acknowledge the following individual supporters above $500 who made contributions between July 1, 2020 and April 19, 2021.
